Andrew Norden heads Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A.'s personal injury department. Mr. Norden practices full time in the areas of product liability, defective medical device litigation, and litigates a variety of cases arising from automobile accidents, defective equipment, negligent security, unsafe and dangerous business premises, and insurance coverage disputes. In addition to overseeing the personal injury department, Mr. Norden litigates a wide range of commercial litigation matters.

Mr. Norden is an accomplished trial attorney and has taken numerous cases to verdict with winning results for clients. His cases have been featured in local publications and verdict reporters, including a case where Mr. Norden and partners obtained an $8,000,000 jury verdict against a well-known insurance company for its failure to procure uninsured motorist coverage for a prominent attorney who was struck and killed by an uninsured driver.

Starting his legal career in South Florida, Mr. Norden worked as an associate at an insurance defense firm. He litigated a variety of cases including commercial trucking accidents, rental car liability matters, insurance coverage disputes, premises liability claims and subrogation matters.

He is a current member of Broward County Justice Association and former board member of the organization. Mr. Norden was also recognized in the 2013-2014 Super Lawyers® publication.
