Christopher Jallo serves as vice president and general counsel to several companies, including the largest independently owned retail liquor company in the State of Florida. As general counsel, Mr. Jallo leads and oversees the companies' legal and corporate affairs, including all corporate responsibilities, acquisitions, litigation, and legal and regulatory needs.

Prior to accepting his current position as general counsel, Mr. Jallo was a Partner with Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A. During his time with KO, Mr. Jallo primarily practiced in the areas of complex commercial, construction, employment, real estate, and business law. He also has experience in government procurement contracts and securities litigation. Throughout his young career, Mr. Jallo has been involved and successfully assisted in the defense of multi-million dollar claims and appeals. Mr. Jallo continues to be Of Counsel to KO, and a member of the Firm's commercial and construction litigation groups.

Mr. Jallo earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Finance and Minor in Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, with Honors, from Florida State University in 2005. In 2009, Mr. Jallo received a Juris Doctor degree, magna cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law. During his law school career, he received several distinguishing honors, including Dean's Lists recognitions, Book Award for Excellence in clinical studies, and Innovative Service Award.

Mr. Jallo is admitted to practice law in Florida, including the United States District Courts for the Southern and Middle Districts of Florida. He is a member of the American Bar Association and the Florida Bar
