Josh Levine is a litigation attorney in the firm's Fort Lauderdale office, but his practice takes him all over the State of Florida and the United States. Mr. Levine focuses on civil litigation and appellate practice, primarily in the areas of class actions and commercial litigation.

Mr. Levine has handled over 175 appeals in all five of Florida's District Courts of Appeal and the Florida Supreme Court, as well as multiple federal appellate courts. Mr. Levine has represented both business entities and individuals in a variety of litigation matters, including contractual claims, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, negligence, professional liability, enforcement of non-compete agreements, trade secret infringement, real estate and title claims, other business torts, insurance coverage disputes, as well as consumer protection statutes.

Mr. Levine is a member of the Florida Bar Appellate Court Rules Committee and member of the Board of Directors of the Broward County Bar Association Young Lawyers Section. He is the Vice President of Programming for the B'nai Brith Justice Unit and is an active member of the Appellate Practice Section of the Florida Bar and the Broward County Bar Association.

Mr. Levine received a Juris Doctor degree, Magna Cum Laude, from the University of Miami School of Law. While attending law school, he served as an Articles and Comments Editor on the University of Miami Inter-American Law Review and was on the Dean's List, and a Merit Scholarship recipient. Mr. Levine also was awarded the Dean's Certificate of Achievement in Legal Research and Writing, Trusts & Estates, & Professional Responsibility classes. Prior to law school, he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from the University of Central Florida.

Before joining KO, Mr. Levine previously worked at an Am Law 100 firm where he also focused on civil litigation and appellate practice, primarily representing banks, lenders, and loan servicers in consumer finance related litigation matters.
