

Cameron Beilly Bio 2024

Cameron Beilly is an Associate in the firm's litigation department. Mr. Beilly devotes most of his practice to various areas of commercial litigation, including business and employment law. Mr. Beilly also represents clients in the equine sports industry, notably horse trainers and horsemen's groups involved in thoroughbred and standardbred horse racing. Mr. Beilly's equine practice focuses on the regulatory process at the state and federal levels, as well as on disputes between parties involved in the industry.

Mr. Beilly earned his B.A. in Political Science from the University of Florida. Following his undergraduate studies, he pursued and received a Master of Public Administration from Florida Atlantic University. While pursuing his MPA, Mr. Beilly worked in private political consulting, political campaigns, and government administration. Mr. Beilly subsequently graduated cum laude from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. During law school, he served as Research Editor of the Florida Law Review and was a member of the Honor Committee.

Before joining KO, Mr. Beilly worked at a large insurance defense firm in South Florida, where he represented contractors and developers in construction defect claims. He then moved to a boutique firm focusing on legal malpractice and premises liability. He now applies this experience throughout his practice at KO.

Outside of his law practice, Cameron serves on the Board of Directors of the Broward Bar Young Lawyers Section.
